

The following extract is taken from the Investor in People review report, dated March 2010:

“The GL11 Community Project (GL11) fully meets the requirements of the Investors in People Standard. I am pleased to confirm that there are no actions required to meet the Standard, following this successful Review Visit.

GL11 met a total of 43 Evidence Requirements.

Recognition as an Investor in People is therefore maintained.

Summary of strengths identified

- Valued leadership demonstrated by the Project Manager
- Inclusive culture that welcomes those new to the team and service users alike
- Much improved communications across the teams
- High level of engagement of staff, volunteers and the community at large in setting the Project’s direction
- All feel this is a fair place to work and volunteer
- A variety of training solutions are considered, from the informal to the more structured.
- Effective induction processes in place for all groups”